

Eliza Tobin Bio

Eliza Tobin is an accomplished musician and dedicated music educator with over two decades of experience, a Bachelor of Arts and Honours in Theatre Studies from La Trobe University (1993) and a Bachelor of Music from Charles Darwin University.

Eliza refined her musical skills through private lessons with Janusz Kwasny and Sarena Wagener from 2005 to 2010 at Charles Darwin University. She actively participated in the Charles Darwin University Adult Woodwind Ensemble (2006–2012) and the Arafura Woodwind Ensemble (2015), focusing on flute performance.

Eliza has over 20 years of experience teaching flute students up to Grade Five (AMEB) and offering beginner lessons in recorder and saxophone. She has worked extensively with educational institutions, including The Essington School, Kormilda College, Centre for Youth and Community Music (CYCM), and Good Shepherd Lutheran College, NT Music School, and Haileybury Rendall School. Since 2020, Eliza has facilitated the 'Flute Troupe' ensemble at CYCM, fostering ensemble performance skills among her students.

Eliza has actively contributed to the local music community, performing with ensembles such as the Charles Darwin University Adult Woodwind Ensemble and the Arafura Woodwind Ensemble.
