

Hilson Pan

Hilson has started studying piano since the age of 5. He learned piano with Weixiang Qian, a current lecturer in Xinghai Conservatory of Music who graduated from Central Conservatory of Music in China (Most reputable in China).

Obtaining the Associate Diploma in Piano Performance with Distinction and has won multiple prizes in piano competitions.

Hilson completed his Bachelor of Commerce and Master of Teaching degree at University of Melbourne and CDU respectively, and is capable of teaching piano in English, Cantonese and Mandarin.

He is experienced in teaching students of all levels, and specialises in teaching students of higher levels, advancing their technicalities and musical performance. His students who he enrolled in for grading exams have all been awarded with "A" and "A+" grades.