

Sabine Gonelli Bio

Sabine Gonelli Violin and Voice Teacher

With over 14 years of experience in music education, Sabine is a dedicated and passionate educator, specializing in violin and voice instruction. Having taught students of all ages and skill levels, Sabine brings both a rich educational background and a deep commitment to helping students reach their full musical potential.

Her personalized approach, which includes developing individual learning plans, has helped students excel in exams and performance opportunities, including earning music bursaries and achieving top AMEB results. Sabine has a diverse teaching portfolio, with experience at institutions such as the Newman College in Perth, WA, St Philip's College, Alice Springs, and The Alice Springs Steiner School. She is particularly skilled in creating an environment where students can thrive - whether preparing for AMEB exams, participating in performances, or refining their technical skills. In addition to her teaching expertise, Sabine is actively involved in her professional development, having recently completed advanced courses in violin technique as well as vocal coaching.

Her academic qualifications include a master's in education, a Certificate IV in Music, and a TESOL certification, all of which contribute to her well-rounded approach to education. Beyond the classroom, Sabine is a passionate violinist with the Darwin Symphony Orchestra and a soprano with the Vocalective Choir.

Her love for music is matched by a deep appreciation for the natural world, which she captures through wildlife photography and as a committed citizen scientist.
